Three States of Man

In Christ

Eternal Life

In Adam

Dead in Trespasses and Sins

Eternal Death

Adam

Fall

The Fall of Mankind

In the Fall of Mankind, we see the consequences of Adam's decision to disobey God, leading to eternal death and separation from God.

Justification

The process of justification involves faith in Jesus Christ and the belief in His sacrifice for sins.

Redemption

Redemption is the act of God rescuing His people from the power of sin and Satan.

Recreation

Recreation refers to the renewed life and relationship with God after justification and redemption.

Note: The diagram visually represents the three states of man: In Adam, In Christ, and Eternal Life. Each state is connected through the stages of justification, redemption, and recreation, illustrating the process of salvation and spiritual growth.
