

THE REVELATION OF THE ONE TRUE GOD

*Great and marvelous are thy works,
Lord God Almighty;
just and true are thy ways,
thou King of saints.*

*Who shall not fear thee, O Lord,
and glorify thy name?
For thou only art holy:
for all nations shall come
and worship before thee;
for thy judgments are made manifest.*

An Introduction Theology Proper: the Study of the One True God

Does a series of lessons on the theology of God seem a bit heavy for a Sunday School class, especially a class that includes small children as well as adults? Should we leave such material to seminaries and theologians? Listen to what C. H. Spurgeon told his congregation at the New Park Street Chapel on January 7, 1855.

It has been said by someone that “the proper study of mankind is man.” I will not oppose the idea, but I believe it is equally true that the proper study of God's elect is God; the proper study of a Christian is the Godhead. The highest science, the loftiest speculation, the mightiest philosophy, which can ever engage the attention of a child of God, is the name, the nature, the person, the work, the doings, and the existence of the great God whom he calls his Father.

There is something exceedingly improving to the mind in a contemplation of the Divinity. It is a subject so vast, that all our thoughts are lost in its immensity; so deep, that our pride is drowned in its infinity. Other subjects we can compass and grapple with; in them we feel a kind of self-content, and go our way with the thought, “Behold I am wise.” But when we come to this master-science, finding that our plumb-line cannot sound its depth, and that our eagle eye cannot see its height, we turn away with the thought that vain man would be wise, but he is like a wild ass's colt; and with solemn exclamation, “I am but of yesterday, and know nothing.” No subject of contemplation will tend more to humble the mind, than thoughts of God . . .

But while the subject humbles the mind, it also expands it. He who often thinks of God, will have a larger mind than the man who simply plods around this narrow globe . . . The most excellent study for expanding the soul, is the science of Christ, and Him crucified, and the knowledge of the Godhead in the glorious Trinity. Nothing will so enlarge the intellect, nothing so magnify the whole soul of man, as a devout, earnest, continued investigation of the great subject of the Deity.

And whilst humbling and expanding, this subject is eminently consolatory . . . I know nothing which can so comfort the soul; so calm the swelling billows of sorrow and grief; so speak peace to the winds of trial, as a devout musing upon the subject of the Godhead.

The value of our study of Theology Proper cannot be better stated, except by Christ Himself: “And this is life eternal, that they might know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent” (John 17:3). We must know God as thoroughly as possible because the eternal salvation of our souls is found in Him and in His Son. With this expectation, we turn now to consider the One True God as He reveals Himself in His Word and in His Son.

Scripture Memorization

Isaiah 55:6-11

6. Seek ye the LORD while he may be found,
call ye upon him while he is near;

7. Let the wicked forsake his way,
and the unrighteous man his thoughts:
and let him return unto the LORD,
and he will have mercy upon him;
and to our God,
for he will abundantly pardon.

8. For my thoughts [are] not your thoughts,
neither [are] your ways my ways,
saith the LORD.

9. For [as] the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways,
and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10. For as the rain cometh down,
and the snow from heaven,
and returneth not thither,
but watereth the earth,
and maketh it bring forth and bud,
that it may give seed to the sower,
and bread to the eater:

11. So shall my word be
that goeth forth out of my mouth:
it shall not return unto me void,
but it shall accomplish that which I please,
and it shall prosper
[in the thing] whereto I sent it.

Immortal, invisible, God only wise

Walter Chalmers Smith, 1824-1908

Welsh hymn melody

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. It consists of five systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano line (bass clef). The key signature is D major (two sharps) and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are arranged in three verses, with the first verse having three lines of text. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines.

Lesson 1: The Need for Divine Revelation

TEXT: Genesis 3; Psalm 14; 1 Corinthians 2:6-16

MEMORY: Isaiah 55:6

HYMN: "Immortal, invisible, God only wise"

SUMMARY: The knowledge of God is prevented by two insurmountable obstacles. In the first place, God is entirely outside of the human realm. He is Spirit and therefore not accessible to finite humans. Secondly, man is totally depraved by sin. As such, his natural faculties cannot comprehend the infinite eternal God. Therefore, for man to know God, God must reveal Himself. God has done this very thing through history. The Bible is a record of that revelation.

Genesis 3

1. Why did Eve eat the fruit of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil?
2. What were the immediate consequences of the sin of Adam and Eve?
3. What judgments did God pronounce?

Psalm 14

4. Who is a fool?
5. What does God see when He looks from heaven at men?

1 Corinthians 2:6-16

6. What did Paul say about the wisdom of God?
7. What did Paul say about the things that God has prepared for those who love Him?
8. How can we know the things of God?
9. What did Paul say about the natural man?

MEMORY: Isaiah 55:6-7

HYMN: "Immortal, invisible, God only wise"

SUMMARY: God is the Creator of heaven and earth. His creation bears an unmistakable witness to His majesty and power through all the earth. Men see this revelation of God but prefer the creature to the Creator. They do not give God the glory due to Him. Therefore, all men are without excuse before the wrath of Almighty God.

HYMN: "Immortal, invisible, God only wise"

SUMMARY: God, Who cannot lie, has spoken to us through men who were inspired by the Holy Spirit. The revelation which they recorded for us in the Bible is without error as God Himself is. SUMMARY: God created the heavens and the earth. This truth is foundational to the Revelation of God. As Creator, God is unlimited in His power. There is nothing that He cannot do in heaven and earth. The ejection of Adam and Eve from the Garden, the flood in the days of Noah and the numerous accounts of God's judgment upon sinful men and sinful nations all serve as a solemn warning that God will not tolerate the sinfulness of the human race. HYMN: "Immortal, invisible, God only wise"

SUMMARY: God's stated purpose throughout Scripture is to bring salvation to a condemned race. This salvation was said in the Old Testament to come through a Member of that race. He is said to be the Seed of the woman, the Seed of Abraham, a Prophet like Moses, the Son of David, the Son of God. That One is Jesus Christ. He perfectly fulfilled all the Old Testament prophecies when He came as God in the flesh to reveal God and accomplish His salvation.

1. What do each of the following passages teach about Jesus Christ?

MEMORY: Isaiah 55:6-11

HYMN: "Immortal, invisible, God only wise"

SUMMARY: The salvation of God is not cheap. It must not do violence to the holy character of God. The great love, mercy and grace of God must be expressed in absolute righteousness. It was to this end that Jesus came as God in human flesh. He offered Himself to God as the perfect Sacrifice for sin and fully satisfied the righteous requirement for judgment as our Substitute. The Father placed our sins upon Him and then killed Him that we might have eternal life. His resurrection bears witness to the completion of this wonderful work.

2 Thessalonians 2:13-17

MEMORY: Isaiah 55:6-11

HYMN: "Immortal, invisible, God only wise"

SUMMARY: The great salvation of God is available to all who will come to receive it. However, man in bondage to sin is not able or willing to come. Yet many do come to receive salvation through faith in Jesus Christ the Redeemer. This happens because of the electing purpose of God. Lesson 13: The Revelation of God's Glory

TEXT: John 17:1-26

MEMORY: Isaiah 55:6-11

SUMMARY: It is the purpose of God the Father to glorify the Son. He has done this by making Him the sole vehicle of eternal life. He alone reveals the Father. He is the only means whereby we might have eternal life. The Son in turn glorifies the Father by faithfully completing all that the Father has asked Him to do in the great work of salvation. We glorify Father and Son by receiving this work of salvation by simple faith in Jesus Christ, and then manifesting the life of Christ in us.

1. What did Jesus pray about glorifying the Father and the Son?
2. What is eternal life?
3. What did Jesus' disciples learn and believe?
4. For whom did Jesus pray and what request did He make for them?
5. What did Jesus pray about His disciples and the world?
6. What did Jesus pray about the Word of God?
7. What did Jesus want the world to know and how are they to know it?
8. What final request did Jesus make for those given to Him by the Father?
