Introduction

A new day dawned on the morning of the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. It was a day of unsurpassed glory as the Son of God rose victorious over sin and death. God the Father was satisfied. The divine work of salvation was now complete. The old order gave way to the new, and the people of God came under the blessings of the New Covenant. The inauguration of this new dispensation actually came on the day of Pentecost, after the ascension of Jesus Christ to the Father's right hand. On that day, the Holy Spirit was poured out on the people of God, and the new era officially began.

From our perspective in the 21st century we may not fully appreciate the change that took place on the day the Holy Spirit was sent upon that group of disciples praying together in the upper room. On that day, the Church of Jesus Christ was established. It was obvious to the many people in Jerusalem that an unusual event had occurred, but it was in the days that followed that the really radical nature of this time became apparent. Since the believing community was largely Jewish, they had known no life other than that prescribed by the Law of Moses with its precepts for their conduct and worship. For centuries the Law of Moses had structured their personal and national life. The message of the disciples, newly baptized with the Holy Spirit, was that salvation came to each one who trusted in the resurrected Jesus Christ for forgiveness of sins. It was a salvation by faith alone without respect to personal character, works or national origin. In effect, the Law of Moses had no place in this new day. Shortly, the proof of this change was seen in the multiplication of Gentile believers who had little or no understanding of life under the Old Covenant and yet manifested the life of Christ in their daily lives.

As might be imagined, this change in the structure of the community of believers, now known as the Church of Jesus Christ, was not accomplished without difficulty. Few, if any, Jewish believers anticipated the temporary departure of Christ from the earth or the replacing of the Old Covenant with the New. This was not because of lack of preparation by the Old Testament scriptures (Jeremiah 31:31-34), but the understanding of this time had been withheld by God pending the exaltation of His Son. Jesus alluded to this fact in the upper room discourse when He spoke of the future ministry of the Holy Spirit Who would teach them many things which they could not bear at the time (John 16:12). Now the time had come, and there was a need for instruction about many things pertaining to life under the New Covenant. For this purpose, the Holy Spirit moved upon the apostles to teach and especially to write new revelation concerning this new order.

Four of the very earliest writings of the infant Church were the Epistle of James, Paul's Epistle to the Galatians, and his two Epistles to the Thessalonians. In these letters, these two apostles addressed some of the fundamental issues of the day. Some of these questions included:

- ▶ Since salvation is by faith alone, what is the place of good works in the New Covenant?
- ▶ Since the Old Covenant has been replaced, what is the role of the Law of Moses in the life of a believer?
- ▶ What is Paul's authority as an apostle?
- ▶ Why do believers suffer persecution?
- ▶ What about the second coming of Jesus Christ?

The answers to these questions are clear in these early writings of James and Paul. But it is obvious that the apostles were not just seeking to write an encyclopedia of theology. The burden of these emissaries of the Holy Spirit was to encourage a life of godliness. In these letters we learn what it means to live in union with the resurrected Jesus Christ in an ungodly world. The correct answers to the issues of that early day are fundamental to the Christian life. It is with this in mind that we will study the messages of these ancient epistles in 2007. We will find that the truths recorded for us remain essential to our endeavor to live righteously in a pagan world, waiting for the return of the Savior.

Lesson 1: Enduring Trials James 1:1-18

Memory: James 1:12

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: The epistle of James is one of the earliest New Testament books and was written to Christian Jews scattered throughout the Roman Empire. It begins with an encouragement to endure the various trials that had and would come upon them. James exhorts the believers to rejoice in these trials as they accomplish a perfecting work in their lives.

1. Why did James tell the brethren to rejoice when they fall into trials?
2. What did James tell those who lack wisdom?
3. What warning is given to those who doubt?
4. Why must the rich man glory when he is made low?
5. What encouragement is given for us to endure temptations?
6. Why must we avoid blaming God for our temptations?
7. What process occurs when we give in to temptation?
8. What did James say about gifts?
9. What evidence do we have of the Father's goodness toward us?

Application: What should we do when we find ourselves in times of trial?

Lesson 2: Doers of the Word James 1:19-2:13

Memory: James 1:22 and review

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: James warns his listeners against hearing God's Word but not putting it into practice. He urges them not to be deceived by knowledge of the truth alone or by a "religion" that is not concerned with a life that matches what it believes and affirms. Being a doer of the Word involves a great responsibility toward mankind, including avoiding partiality and focusing on the "royal law" of loving our neighbors.

1. In what way should we be quick, and what ways should we be slow?
2. What did James say about hearing and doing the Word of God?
3. How did James describe useless religion and pure religion?
4. How did James illustrate showing partiality?
5. What did James teach about poor people?
6. What did James teach about the rich?
7. What is the royal law?
8. Why are all men guilty under the Law?
9. What did James say about judgment?

Application: What behavior shows that we are truly hearing the Word of God?

Lesson 3: Faith Without Works is Dead! James 2:14-26

Memory: James 2:26 and review

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: James follows his exhortation to be a doer of the Word by raising a compelling question – Can faith apart from works save a person? He then states that faith alone is dead. Saving faith must be a faith that works – a faith perfected and expressed by a transformed life. James supports his statements with two Old Testament examples – the faith-demonstrating lives of Abraham and Rahab.

1. What question did James raise about salvation?
2. What did James say about a brother or sister in need of clothing or food?
3. What is the relationship between faith and works?
4. How do the demons illustrate the lesson about faith and works?
5. Why did James say that Abraham was justified by his works?
6. What is the testimony of Scripture about Abraham?
7. What did James conclude about justification?
8. How did Rahab illustrate the relationship between faith and works?
9. How did James use human life to illustrate his point?

Application: Are we saved by faith or are we saved by works?

Lesson 4: Wisdom from Above

James 3:1-18

Memory: James 3:17 and review

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: James uses strong language to describe the tongue – a fire, a world of iniquity, an unruly evil, and full of deadly poison. It is by the tongue that true faith is proven. Its fruit is produced by a heart either led by "wisdom" from the earth or wisdom from above.

1. Why did James warn against becoming a teacher of the Word?
2. What did James say about bits and rudders?
3. How is our tongue like a fire?
4. How is our tongue not like a wild animal?
5. What did James say about the tongue that he thought ought not to be so?
6. What did James observe in the natural realm that he applied to what he observed about the tongue?
7. How do we show that we are wise and understanding?
8. What is earthly or demonic wisdom?
9. What is wisdom from above?

Application: Why is our tongue so important?

Lesson 5: Draw Near to God! James 4:1-17

Memory: James 4:8 and review

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: In chapter 4, James warns his readers against worldliness. Instead, they were to draw near to God in submission and true humility. In doing so, they would be given the grace to resist the devil and to not fall prey to worldly living and thinking.

1. Where do wars and fightings come from?
2. Why do you ask and not receive?
3. What did James teach about friendship with the world?
4. What did James teach about pride and humility?
5. What should we do about the devil and what should we do about God?
6. What instructions did James give to sinners?
7. What did James say about speaking evil of a brother?
8. How should we make our plans for the future?
9. What is sin?

Application: How do we draw near to God?

Lesson 6: The Coming of the Lord is at Hand James 5:1-20

Memory: Galatians 2:20 and review

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: Because the coming of the Lord is near, James warns the rich against trusting in their riches, exhorts the brethren to be patient, and encourages the afflicted to continue to endure. He concludes his epistle by discussing the effect of the prayer of faith and of seeking to rescue those who have erred from the truth.

1. What did James tell the rich to do?
2. What did James tell the rich about their conduct?
3. What did James learn from the farmer?
4. Why should we not grumble against a brother?
5. What do we learn from the prophets and Job?
6. What important lesson did James teach about swearing?
7. What did James say to the sick and suffering?
8. What did James teach about prayer?
9. How should we treat a brother who wanders from the truth?

Application: Why is the coming of the Lord important to us today?

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS

An Outline

In Galatians Paul defended his apostleship in the first two chapters, he defended and declared the doctrine of justification in chapters 3 and 4, and he exhorted the believers as to their practical duties in chapters 5 and 6.

Therefore, we can outline the epistle as being:

- I. PERSONAL (Galatians 1, 2). A defense of his apostleship.
- II. DOCTRINAL (Galatians 3, 4). A defense of the doctrine of justification by faith, and not of works.
- III. PRACTICAL (Galatians 5, 6). A description of the life of a Christian.

I. THE DEFENSE OF PAUL'S APOSTLESHIP (Galatians 1, 2).

Wherever Paul's apostleship was questioned, his teaching was also questioned. Therefore, Paul defended his apostleship to preserve his own integrity as well as the authority and faithfulness of his ministry.

- A. His title and his greeting (1:1-5).
- B. His affirmation of the importance of the Gospel (1:6-10).
- C. The unique way he had received the Gospel as a revelation from God, and how his life had been transformed (1:11-24).
- D. His acceptance by the other apostles (2:1-10).
- E. His rebuke of the Apostle Peter and his defense of the Gospel (2:11-21).

II. THE DOCTRINE OF JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH (Galatians 3, 4).

Here Paul was defending the doctrine of justification by faith against the teachers who had introduced the works of the Law as essential for salvation.

- A. The ministry of the Spirit in salvation by faith (3:1-5).
- B. The justification of Abraham (3:6-18).
- C. The purpose of the Law (3:19-4:7).
- D. Paul's rebuke of the churches because:
 - 1. They had turned back to the Law, and it had affected their relationship with him (4:8-18).
 - 2. Their ignorance of the true nature of the Law (4:19-31).

III. THE DUTIES OF BELIEVERS UNDER GRACE (Galatians 5, 6).

When doctrine is corrupted, the lives of believers are corrupted, too. Therefore, Paul gave some practical exhortations which must have been especially needed in the Galatian churches.

- A. The believer's liberty in Christ (5:1-15).
- B. The believer's responsibility to walk in the Spirit (5:16-26).
- C. Various practical exhortations (6:1-10).
- D. Paul's final appeal and conclusion (6:11-18).

Lesson 7: No Other Gospel Galatians 1:1-17

Memory: Galatians 5:16 and review

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: The epistle of Galatians is written to a church that had openly accepted the heretical teaching that salvation for both the Jews and Gentiles includes submission to the Mosaic Law. Because his teaching was being questioned, Paul defended his apostleship and used his own conversion as an example of justification by grace through faith alone. It is not of man, nor does it include the works of the Law.

1. How did Paul describe his apostleship?
2. Why did Paul ascribe glory to God forever?
3. What amazed Paul about the Galatians?
4. What curse did Paul pronounce?
5. What difference did it make to Paul that he was a servant of Christ?
6. What did Paul say about the Gospel which he preached?
7. How did Paul describe his former conduct?
8. What changed Paul's course?
9. What did Paul do after his call to preach the Gospel?

Application: How can we recognize "another Gospel"?

Lesson 8: The Truth of the Gospel Galatians 1:18-2:10

Memory: Galatians 6:14 and review

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: Before joining the apostles in Jerusalem, Paul spent three years learning "by revelation" about the faith which "once he destroyed." Observing his transformed life, the believers glorified God and the apostles accepted him as a preacher of the truth of the gospel. Though false brethren sought to pervert the gospel by requiring circumcision as a means of grace, it was evident that the same grace that had called the "pillars" (James, Peter, and John) to ministry among the circumcised had been given also to Paul and Barnabas to preach the gospel to the uncircumcised.

1. What happened on Paul's first visit to Jerusalem as a Christian?
2. What happened when Paul went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia?
3. Why did Paul go to Jerusalem a second time?
4. What issue came up about Titus while Paul was in Jerusalem?
5. Why did Paul resist the false brethren?
6. What did Paul say about those who seemed to be important in Jerusalem?
7. How did Paul's ministry compare with Peter's ministry?
8. Who were the pillars, and what decision did they make about the ministry?
9. What special instructions were given to Paul and Barnabas?

Application: What is the liberty which we have in Christ Jesus?

Lesson 9: Crucified with Christ Galatians 2:11-21

Memory: 1 Thessalonians 5:15 and review

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: Hearing that Peter himself struggled with the question of law-keeping, Paul confronted Peter and reminded the believers that justification by the faith of Christ leaves no room for the works of the Law. He warned them of the consequences of forsaking this doctrine, namely that Christ would be perceived as a minister of sin and we would make ourselves transgressors. Christ's death was vain if it ever becomes possible that righteousness can be obtained by law-keeping.

1. What did Peter do in Antioch that Paul was concerned about?

2. What effect did Peter's actions have upon others?

3. What did Paul see that the problem was?

4. What did Paul say to Peter before the church in Jerusalem?

5. What did Paul say the Christian Jews had learned about justification?

6. How is it possible for Christ to be perceived as a minister of sin?

7. How would Paul make himself a transgressor?

8. What did Christ's death and life mean to Paul?

9. How did this issue affect the grace of God?

Application: What does it mean to be crucified with Christ?

Lesson 10: The Just Shall Live By Faith Galatians 3:1-18

Memory: 1 Thessalonians 5:16-17 and review

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: Paul rebukes the Galatian believers for being so easily swayed into thinking that justification includes the works of the Law. He reminded them of their own justification, received from the Spirit by faith alone. Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. The sons of Abraham, including believing Gentiles, are counted righteous in the same way, for "the just shall live by faith." The Law puts us under a curse. Christ redeems us from that curse.

1. Why did Paul consider the Galatians to be foolish?

2. What can be learned from the life of Abraham?

3. Who are the sons of Abraham?

4. What is the significance of God's promise of blessing through Abraham?

5. What is the result of being under the Law?

6. Why is it impossible to be justified by the Law?

7. How does the blessing of Abraham come upon the Gentiles?

8. What principle did Paul state about covenants?

9. Why is it not possible for the inheritance to come by the Law?

Application: What is the difference between living by faith and living by the Law?

Lesson 11: Sons of God by Faith in Christ Jesus Galatians 3:19-4:7

Memory: 1 Thessalonians 5:18 and review

Hymn: “Moment by Moment”

SUMMARY: Paul reminds the believers of the Law's bondage. The Law came because of transgression and after the promise of Christ was given. It was a schoolmaster, something both children who were slaves and children who were heirs were guided by until adulthood. Through faith in Christ, we are no longer in need of this schoolmaster. We become full-grown sons, no longer slaves to the bondage of the Law.

1. What purpose did the Law serve?
2. What was the effect of the Law?
3. How is the Law a tutor (schoolmaster)?
4. Who is a son of God?
5. What is the difference between a son of God and an heir of Abraham?
6. Why is an heir in childhood no different from a servant?
7. How does this lesson on heirs apply to the place of the Law?
8. What did God do “in the fulness of the time”?
9. What does it mean to receive adoption as sons?

Application: What did Paul mean when he said “we are no longer under a schoolmaster (or tutor)?”

Lesson 12: The Children of Promise Galatians 4:8-31

Memory: 2 Thessalonians 2:13 and review

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: The Galatian church had turned back to following the tradition of their fathers. Paul rebukes them again, and reminds them of what the law symbolized – bondage to sin. He presents an allegory of two sons – the son of bondage and the son of the free, representing two covenants. In Christ, all who believe are sons of promise.

1. What did Paul think about their observation of days and months and times (seasons) and years?
2. How had Paul appeared to the Galatians at the first and how did they receive him?
3. Why had the Galatians changed their attitude toward Paul?
4. What was Paul's opinion about the Galatians?
5. How are the two sons of Abraham described?
6. What did the two sons of Abraham symbolize?
7. Where do we fit into this picture?
8. What other similarity is there between the sons of Abraham and the situation in the Galatian churches?
9. What did Scripture teach about the son of the bondwoman?

Application: What does it mean that we are the children of promise and not of the bondwoman?

Lesson 13: Walk in the Spirit! Galatians 5:1-26

Memory: 2 Thessalonians 2:14 and review

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: Paul exhorts the Galatians to stand fast in the liberty they had in Christ. However, he warns them not to let this freedom from the law cause them to fall into fleshly living. Paul exhorts the struggling believers to walk in the Spirit, where true freedom from law and sin is found.

1. What instructions did Paul give to those who are free in Christ?
2. What are the consequences of circumcision?
3. What is the alternative to justification by the Law?
4. Why did Paul suffer persecution?
5. How should the brethren exercise their liberty in Christ?
6. What two opposing forces are at work in a believer?
7. What are the works of the flesh, and what happens to those who practice them?
8. What is the fruit of the Spirit?
9. How are we able to walk in the Spirit?

Application: What is Christian liberty?

Lesson 14: Glory in the Cross Galatians 6:1-18

Memory: Review all verses

Hymn: "Moment by Moment"

SUMMARY: After giving various final exhortations, Paul concludes his epistle with a final appeal regarding the issue of circumcision. Circumcision and the works of the law are to no avail. Their end is only personal gain and glory. Paul's desire was for boasting in the cross of Christ alone. In Christ alone is justification and freedom from the Law.

1. How should we care for one another?

2. How should we care for ourselves?

3. How should we treat our teachers?

4. What are the principles of sowing and reaping?

PAUL'S FIRST EPISTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

An Outline

I. PAUL'S GREETING (1 Thessalonians 1:1).

Here Paul identified himself as the author of this epistle, told who his companions were, mentioned those for whom this epistle was written, and his prayer for them.

II. HISTORICAL AND PERSONAL (1 Thessalonians 1:2-3:13).

A. A thankful review of God's work in Thessalonica (1:2-10).

B. A reminder of the nature of Paul's ministry among them—again marked with Paul's thanksgiving to God in 2:13 (2:11-16).

Paul's integrity was under attack, and so he defended himself in this section.

C. Paul's great concern for the church in Thessalonica (2:17-3:10).

This also was a part of Paul's defense against the charges made by his enemies, that he really did not care for the people. There evidently was an attempt on the part of Paul's enemies to get the people to believe that Paul was doing what he was doing for his own personal gain, and not to benefit the people of Thessalonica in any way.

D. Paul's prayer for himself and for the church (3:11-13).

III. PRACTICAL AND DOCTRINAL (1 Thessalonians 4:1-5:24).

A. The practical exhortations concerning their walk (4:1-12).

Emphasis is upon a holy life.

B. The doctrine: the coming of the Lord (4:13-5:5).

Every chapter in this epistle closes with a reference to the coming of the Lord (cf. 1 Thess. 1:10; 2:19, 20; 3:13; 4:13-18; 5:24). In addition we must include 1 Thess. 5:1-5.

C. The practical exhortations resumed and completed (5:6-24).

IV. CONCLUSION (1 Thessalonians 5:25-28)

Three of these four verses contain additional practical exhortations, but are given by way of conclusion. Paul began this epistle with a prayer for grace, and he concluded on the same note.

SUMMARY: In chapter 2, Paul presents the sole purpose for writing this epistle – to correct a misunderstanding about the end times. Paul urges them not to be deceived into thinking that the Day of the Lord was present or had already occurred.
