The Law of Liberty

PRINCIPLES FROM ROMANS 14:1-12

1. The strong in Christ must receive (welcome) the weak (but not to disputes over doubtful matters). v. 1

2. The strong must not despise the weak. v. 3

3. The weak must not judge the strong. v. 3

4. Each one must be fully convinced in his own mind. v. 5b

5. We shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. v. 10

Each of us shall give an account of himself to God. v. 12

God has received him.

The Law of Love: Use of Liberty

Principles from Romans 14:13-23

1. The law of love is to be followed;
Christian liberty must not be used to harm
a brother for whom Christ died. :13-15
2. Christian liberty must not be used in such a way as to bring reproach on the faith. :16
3. The Christian faith does not consist of physical entities such as food and drink,
 but of righteousness and peace and joy
in the Holy Spirit. :17-18
4. Christians should pursue that which produces peace and building up other Christians. :19

The Law of Love: Use of Liberty (continued)

5. It is wrong to make others fall by the use of things indifferent in themselves (adiaphora), such as meat or wine. :20-21

6. Though the strong are free to use things which God has not pronounced sinful, they should not encourage the weak to use them against their conscience, for whatever does not come from faith is sin. :22-23

Conscience

- We must not perform what our conscience prohibits.
(If conscience tells you 'don't do it,' don't do it.)
- * Conscience must be educated by the WORD of GOD. *
- We must not trust our conscience to prompt us to do right.
(Not a reliable positive guide.)
