The gospel “contains three essential elements:

- (1) It is a story of historical occurrences—an historical proclamation: Christ died, was buried, and rose (1 Co 15:3-4).
- (2) It is an authoritative interpretation of these events—a theological evaluation. Christ died for our sins.
- (3) It is an offer of salvation to whosoever will—an ethical summons. Repent! Believe!”

—Quoted in The MacArthur New Testament Commentary: 2 Peter and Jude, p. 29
