The High Priest (5:1-4)

- ▶ The Levitical priesthood is the pattern
- ▶ Taken from among men
 - Represents men before God
 - Leviticus 16:33 – “for the priests and for all the people of the assembly”
- ▶ Mediate things pertaining to God
 - Mediation to bring us to God – by gifts and sacrifices to God
 - A work of propitiating/pacifying the wrath of God
 - Annual Day of Atonement – High Priest entered the presence of God
- ▶ Identified with the people – shared their frailties and sin
- ▶ Chosen by God
 - Not qualified
 - Not able to solve the problem of sin

Jesus, the High Priest (5:5-10)

- ▶ Christ did not glorify Himself to become High Priest
 - Psalm 2:7 – My Son – Begotten today
 - Psalm 110:4 – Priest forever – order of Melchizedek
- ▶ Taken from among men – “In the days of His flesh”
 - Cried out to the Father
 - Heard because of His piety (“He feared” AV)
 - Not suffering for sin
 - Suffering because of the Father’s ways
- ▶ Learned obedience through suffering
 - Word of God or Ways of God
 - Faith
- ▶ Having been made perfect – finished the course
- ▶ Appointed by God to order of Melchizedek

Exhortation Begins (5:11-14)
