*And many other signs truly did Jesus
in the presence of his disciples,
which are not written in this book:
But these are written, that ye might believe

and that believing ye might have life

INTRODUCTION

All of Scripture is a revelation of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. But the Gospel by the Apostle John is perhaps the most explicit of all the books of the Bible in seeking to set forth Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God. John stated his purpose in John 20:30-31.

First of all, he wants us to know that this Jesus is the Christ, the long promised Old Testament Messiah. From Genesis to Malachi, God promised He would send One Who would deliver His people from their sins. Jesus came, the Seed of Abraham and heir of David's throne. But more than a mere man, Jesus Christ is God Himself come in the flesh. He is the very Son of God. Secondly, John did not write only to provide a record concerning an unusual event in history. He wants us to understand the truth about Jesus Christ, so that we might have eternal life through faith in Him, the Son of God. The facts of this account are not just true history. They are life imparting. To read this Gospel and fail to see that Jesus is God in the flesh is to miss the message completely. But it is also missed if we accept the historical fact of Jesus' life on earth, but do not believe in Him as God's Savior for our sins. The message of John's Gospel is that we may have eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God. To state it another way, a true knowledge of Jesus will bring us to believe in Him and have eternal life.

Given this objective, each portion of the Gospel has been carefully selected by John, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, in order to achieve this purpose. No story is given for interest's sake only. All parts of John's Gospel seek to exalt Jesus as the Divine Messiah and lead the reader to salvation through faith in Jesus, the Son of God.

John includes only eight miracles, but gives us perhaps the richest source of the teachings of Jesus in which He claims to be God and the only source of eternal life. An interesting aspect of this Gospel is John's use of several metaphors, such as: the new birth, the Lamb of God, living water, and the true vine, to mention some. All of the signs and teachings are skillfully used by the Holy Spirit to show Jesus as the Son of God and His mission to save sinners.

The following is an outline of John's Gospel:

1. Prologue
(1:1-18)
2. Presentation of the Son of God
(1:19-4:54)
3. Rejection of the Son of God
(5:1-12:50)
4. The Son of God ministers to His own
(13:1-17:26)
5. The death and resurrection of the Son of God
(18:1-20:31)
6. Epilogue
(21:1-25)

We must study this book with a sense of awe as we see the Son of God made flesh in Jesus, the God-Man. We should be greatly humbled and delighted to behold that the perfect Son of God came in human flesh as the Lamb of God to save sinners such as ourselves. It is the foundation for the most amazing message in all human history. "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him" (John 5:36). We must know it, believe it and proclaim it!
