INTRODUCTION

This booklet will guide us through a study of the great doctrine of salvation. This is a study which should delight every child of God as we consider again how the amazing grace of God found a way to deliver His people from the fierce wrath of God's justice and make them partakers of eternal salvation through the Lord Jesus Christ. Since this is the chief work by which God glorifies Himself (John 17:4), a study of the grace of our Sovereign Lord ought to occupy us throughout our lives. We cannot know too much of the grace of God, only too little.

Our approach in this study will be to consider the role of each member of the Godhead in the work of redemption. We will begin as the Bible itself begins, with a consideration of God as Creator. This establishes God as Sovereign over the destiny of His entire creation, including man who is the apex of His work, created in the very image of God. We will then turn to consider the rebellion of this creature and the well-deserved condemnation that followed. It is important to fully understand the hopeless dilemma that fallen man finds himself in. He is unworthy of anything more than the full measure of the wrath of God and is unable to extricate himself from this condemnation. This is an essential starting point in the study of salvation because failure to fully understand man's hopeless state of absolute bondage to sin will certainly hinder our ability to understand the wonder of the story that follows: the sovereign grace of the Triune God.

Without ever explaining why, Scripture makes it clear that God, in love, has determined in eternity past, to provide a perfect redemption for sinful man. Each member of the Godhead has particular responsibilities in this work. The Father originated the redemptive plan. The Son executed the plan. The Holy Spirit applies the plan.

In infinite love, the Father determined to save a particular people from among fallen mankind by the bloody sacrifice of His Only Begotten Son. He did so in a manner which perfectly preserves and displays all the attributes of God. Only Infinite Wisdom could design a plan in which the wrath of God is justly and fully dispensed and the goodness of God fully expressed so that utterly corrupt men and women are transformed into the very image of the holy and righteous eternal God. The success of this work is never in doubt from design to execution to application because it depends only upon the omnipotent, eternal God.

The plan of salvation rests upon the astonishing and wonderful work of the Son of God. He humbled Himself and entered the human race, fully man, apart from sin, to accomplish the will of the Father. His life, death, and resurrection are the means by which God is able to provide salvation for His people from their sins. In His exalted presence before the Father, He pleads the merits of His blood on behalf of the people of God. The expectation of the ages is that Christ will soon come and receive the people of God into His presence eternally—perfectly clothed in His Own holiness— forever delivered from sin and death.

The Spirit of God accomplishes the will of the Father by administering the work of the Son in each one of God's chosen people. Where the Word of God is proclaimed, the Holy Spirit finds the people of God, fast bound in sin, and causes them to be born again so that they can see and enter the kingdom of God by faith in Christ. He seals the people of God so that their participation in the work of Christ is eternally certain.

It is our purpose in this study to become more familiar with this great doctrine of salvation. God is glorified as we study this doctrine, and that alone should suffice. But we also need to proclaim this message of the grace of God. A final lesson will focus on our duty to proclaim this wonderful message of the incomparable grace of God and help us develop a clear, concise formulation of the Gospel. May God grant that we increase in our understanding of the Gospel and increase in our boldness in proclaiming the grace of our Triune God's great salvation.

Memory Assignment

1 Peter 1:3-9

- ³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
which according to his abundant mercy
hath begotten us again unto a lively hope
by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.
- ⁴ To an inheritance incorruptible,
and undefiled,
and that fadeth not away,
reserved in heaven for you,
- ⁵ Who are kept by the power of God
through faith unto salvation
ready to be revealed in the last time.
- ⁶ Wherein ye greatly rejoice,
though now for a season, if need be,
ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:
- ⁷ That the trial of your faith,
being much more precious than of gold that perisheth,
though it be tried with fire,
might be found unto praise and honour and glory
at the appearing of Jesus Christ:
- ⁸ Whom having not seen, ye love;
in whom, though now ye see him not,
yet believing,
ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:
- ⁹ Receiving the end of your faith,
even the salvation of your souls.
